JAPANESE FLAG MADSEN IS MADE MANOA NOT FILLED

MAY FLY FROM DEPUTY HARBOR MASTER TO ONE THIRD CAPACITY

M. A. Madsen, chief officer in the Matson Navigation steamer Manoa, identified with that line for years, a veteran navigator in the Pacific, has been officially notified of his appointment to the office of deputy harbor master at the port of Honolulu. The popular steamship man, at one time a skipper, was officially advised through a cable received at San Francisco before the Manoa steamed to Honolulu. Madsen left the coast prepared to take up his residence in this city.

Harbormaster William Foster has received congratulations on his selection of a deputy to take the place made vacant by the transfer of Capt. John F. Haglund to the staff of harbor pilots. Madsen is said to possess a splendid knowledge of Honolulu harbor and island waters gained by his long association with vessels in the island and trans-Pacific trade.

It will be pleasing news to the host of friends of J. W. Jory, former chief officer in the American-Hawaiian steamer Honolulu, to learn that he is to take over the duties of first mate in the Manoa on its return to the coast.

The genial, rotund Jory is said to never have lost his aloha for the islands. Since leaving Honolulu he has continued with the Honolulu on its new run between San Francisco and New York by the way of the Panama canal.

EWA PLANTATION COMPANY.

The stock books of Ewa Plantation Company will be closed to transfers Wednesday, May 19, 1:15, at 12 o'clock noon, to Saturday, May 29, 1915, inclusive.

T. H. PETRIE, Treasurer, Ewa Plantation Co. Honolulu, May 18, 1915. 6167-11

The slump in tourist travel from the mainland to the islands of late is shown in the small list of passengers brought to Honolulu today in the big Matson liner Manoa. The vessel left the coast with 37 cabin passengers, estimated at about a third of its capacity.

Officers are unable to account for the falling off in passenger business. They say that it has appeared to affect travel on all lines out of San Francisco to Hawaii.

Freight offerings continue to make a creditable showing. The Manoa arrived at Pier 15 before 8 o'clock this morning to land about 3000 tons of general merchandise including a number of high-powered auto-trucks and cars. The vessel carried a quantity of supplies for the United States army and navy. The Manoa will steam to Kahului tomorrow evening to discharge 400 tons of freight. It may return to Honolulu Sunday morning to complete loading sugar for Pacific coast refineries.

Purser James Corrigan reported 93 sacks of mail. "We were entrusted with several queens of the Pacific coast," said Corrigan.

He later amplified the statement by admitting that the protection of the ship's officers was extended to a small box of queen bees.

The Manoa brought several employees for Pearl Harbor. Directed by Captain Henry Weeden, Purser Corrigan and Chief Steward Wilmarth, a pleasant program of entertainment and deck sports was given.

The Manoa met with fine weather after leaving the California coast behind.
